Day 1 - Newport Beach

DAY NOTE: Start your day off with a traditional American breakfast at First Cabin Restaurant, or sleep in a little and enjoy their fine brunch specialties. From here head over to the Sawdust Festival a summer tradition of over 40 years. There is so much to discover here, jugglers, glass-blowers. It truly is breathtaking, how many cool things are here, you can and probably should spend all day. Making your way through the festival may work up an appetite and if that is the case stop in at the Laguna Culinary Arts where you will be delighted to both look at and eat these decadent dishes. If you can manage to tear yourselves away from the food join in the fun at First Thursday's Art Walk, this walk showcases around 40 galleries, all for your viewing pleasure. Free shuttles are available and you can do the tour with a guide if you prefer. Off to Mexico for dinner, well not exactly but you may very well think you are. Las Brisas boasts some of the best Mexican food in Southern California. Their menu relies heavily on the seafood from the Pacific Ocean but they have something for everyone. When you are nice and full head back to the Hilton Waterfront Beach Resort for some well deserved sleep.

Day 2 - Santa Ana, Irvine, Newport Beach

DAY NOTE: Everyone should start their day off right with a light breakfast, and today is no exception. When you wake up be sure to take advantage of the complimentary breakfast that the Hilton has for you. When you are ready to begin your day head to Santa Ana to play at the Kidseum. This place is designed for young children but I am sure that you will enjoy yourselves too. While you are here drop by the Bowers Art Museum, and take a quick look, you will be coming back. In this area you will find Tangata a quaint restaurant that serves amazing Californian style dishes. This is a fun spot to visit because it is in a place of art, it is fun. After your meal head to Heritage Park where you can do nearly any activity that you want, basketball, tennis anything, so be sure to pack your running shoes. This is a great way for everyone including yourself to release some pent up energy. When you are ready to return to the indoor world Bowers Museum of Cultural Art is waiting for you, with its collection of artifacts for all over the world, like Southeast Asia, Oceania, and Mexico just to name a few. If you are worried about getting all sweaty at the park then do that after Bowers it is all up to you. For some afternoon fun or night time fun Balboa Fun Zone is the place for you, fun is in the name. Here you can ride Ferris wheels, play games or enjoy any of the yummy food. If you are up to eat again, or just want somewhere and get and drink and some appetizers go to Anthony's Riverboat Restaurant. It is a fun place to hang out so give it a shot. And really how often do you get to eat on a boat?

Day 3 - Newport Beach, Santa Ana

DAY NOTE: Sleep in, or wake up and explore the beautiful beach outside of the Hilton Resort. Sit by the pool, grab a quick bite to eat at breakfast, do whatever you want. Get a massage if you are so inclined. When you are ready to start your day head to Hogue Barmichaels for some really good food and possibly music. Give the place a shot, you might have a blast. When you have finished your meal the Orange County Fair awaits you in all its glory. There are endless things to do here, so pick what you want and go for it. For dinner step out there and try Kappo Sui. You will feel like you are in Tokyo with its authentic styling and menu. Be ready for a good time.

1 Tangata

DESCRIPTION: Located in the beautiful Bowers Art Museum, Tangata provides a fantastic ambience, Spanish style patio and courtyard, bright flowers and a swanky sky-lit inner room with high ceilings. Once you are peacefully nestled in your seat, order from a number of delectable Californian dishes. In true Californian style, tapas and sandwiches are on the menu. These sandwiches have a punch, like the Roasted Butternut Squash and Manchego Cheese with White Truffle Oil. If you want something a bit more substantial, try the Oven slow-roasted Half Chicken instead - it comes with Basque jus and

1 Hogue Barmichaels

DESCRIPTION: Hogue Barmichaels is a restaurant and bar that caters towards musicians and music lovers. While checking out some of the bands that grace the stage, you can feast on one of their ten burger choices for lunch or dinner. Up and coming bands might particularly want to check out Hogue Barmichaels as they will allow you to record your band for only $10! They will also supply the bands with equipment such as PA systems, a sound engineer, and drum microphones too. © wcities.com

2 Kappo Sui

DESCRIPTION: This Japanese pub and restaurant will make you feel like you are in Tokyo. The atmosphere is lively as patrons convene over the fine food, enhanced by the Japanese beer and sake. You're going to want to order something with your sake—that's what the "kappo" are for. Kappo are appetizers that are meant to be eaten while drinking. If you want something more, try the fish entrees or the filet mignon. The menu doesn't have many conventional wines as most people are imbibing beer and sake. © wcities.com

M-Su 5:30p-11p
