Day 1

DAY NOTE: Getting an early start:

Disney's Magic Kingdom is a must-see for any first time or even repeated visitors. Get an early start by booking a breakfast character at the Crystal Palace that will allow you to enter the park before everyone else.

After enjoying your character breakfast, you can start your day. Head toward the back of the park to start your journey in order to avoid a big crowd. And don't forget to strategically use Fast-Pass for the popular ride to minimize your waiting time in line.

Take a mid-day break and head back to the resort for a quick nap for little ones and little rest for parents.

In the afternoon, head back to the Magic Kingdom Park just in time for the firework and parade show.

Day 2 - Orlando

DAY NOTE: Disney's Animal Kingdom:

Another family favorite park from Walt Disney World. The Disney's Animal Kingdom is big and involves a lot of walking. So make sure you have a stroller for little one even for preschoolers who can walk. You don't want to carry them at the end of the day.

With the size and the heat that can take a toll on the little ones, it's best to go in with a plan. Kids will love the ride on Kilimanjaro Safari. Then hop on the Wildlife Express Train to the Conservation Station where kids will have a chance to meet domestic animals. Escape the heat to the comfort of indoor theater for 3-D movie, It's Tough to be a Bug.

Take a lunch break at the jungle-themed restaurant - The Rain Forest Cafe for a fun simulated weather patterns and animated animals.

Disney's Blizzard Beach:

After an exhausting morning, a break in the water is a big welcome for the whole family. The Disney's Blizzard Beach is a perfect place to escape the heat and relax.

Parents for preschoolers and younger kids can put up their command center at the Tike's Peak where kids can enjoy the fun in their own watery play area.

Big kids or tweens can enjoy relaxing lazy river at the Cross Country Creek. For a more thrill seekers, there are many options to test your limit.

Celebration:

End your day with a visit to this planned small town that make you feel like you are in a whole new world.

Day 3 - Orlando

DAY NOTE: Universal Studios & Islands of Adventure:

For family with school-age kids, Universal Studio and Islands of Adventure might satisfy them more than Disney World. With the announcing of highly anticipated new Wizarding World of Harry Potter, my kids (and myself) are very excited and are looking forward to visiting soon.

Downtown Disney:

Enjoy the evening after a long day at the park at the Downtown Disney Market. You can stroll along the boardwalk and check out many specialty stores likes World of Disney Store, Lego Store or Once Upon a Toy. Then treat your kids for a good behavior to the ice cream from Ghirardelli Soda Fountain & Chocolate Shop.

Universal Studios Florida

Dive into movie land with spectacular rides, shows, and real-life sets.

Islands of Adventure

Unbelievable roller coasters and character encounters

Day 4 - Orlando

DAY NOTE: SeaWorld Orlando or Discovery Cove:

For marine animal lovers, the SeaWorld Orlando will be a perfect fit for the whole family. There are various marine live shows throughout the day. So start your day with a good plan to make sure you don't miss out on your must-see live shows.

And if you have kids who always dream about swimming with a dolphin, Discovery Cove will be the answer for them.

Day 5

DAY NOTE: Disney's Hollywood Studios:

If you have the Hopper Park pass (which is highly recommended), then a quick visit at Disney's Hollywood Studios will make little ones very happy.

They will meet their favorite friends from their favorite Playhouse Disney shows. My school-age kids will enjoy the Star Tour based on Star Wars movie and the Jedi Academy.

Epcot:

Epcot is big, no scratch that, it's HUGE. So for the visit that will be only for half a day, it's best to just relax a little bit and try not to try it all. With kids, they will probably prefer to walk around and enjoy different street performers at various country at the World Showcase.

A stop at the Living with the Land at the Future World will surely be a big hit for kids of all age.

At the end of the day, find a perfect restaurant with the best view and get ready to enjoy the Illumination firework show.

Celebration

OUR LOCAL EXPERT SAYS:

check out their website to see if any events are on the horizon! Celebration hosts awesome family events.

DESCRIPTION: Pleasantville literally came to life in 1996 with the creation of the Town of Celebration. As eerie as this might sound, this quaint little town is tucked just far back enough from Disney and its related tourist hot spots to make it a quiet place to spend an afternoon or evening. Start your visit by heading down to Market Street, where you'll find lots of parking on the adjacent streets. If you plan to stay for dinner, you can make a reservation at one of the many great restaurants. Columbia is my favorite, but there is also Seito Sushi, Cafe D'Antonio, Market Street Café, as well as a few other great restaurants. Then you can spend a couple of hours prior to your reservation exploring the town.

One option for exploring Celebration is renting a NEV – Neighborhood Electronic Vehicle – from Wheelz of Celebration. Much like a golf cart, you can drive around at a pretty good

by Kristen Manieri

speed. So many of Celebration's residents own NEVs that the town created NEV parking spaces around Market and Front Street. From the comfort of your NEV you can check out the hundreds of beautiful houses, stunningly decorated during the holiday season. Make sure you head over to Eastlawn Drive where you'll see some spectacular multimillion-dollar homes. Another option for exploring is by foot. Celebration is a very walk-able community, with sidewalks on every street and wooden boardwalks throughout. Boardwalks lead through wetland areas where you might catch a glimpse of the many forms of wildlife that also make their home here. There have been many sightings of deer, turkey, and even alligators. Your last option, and my personal favorite, is to take a horse-drawn carriage ride from Front Street and around the main village. For a nominal fee, you can take a romantic, 20-minute ride while you admire the manicured lawns and traditional architecture. For those interested in a little window-shopping, there are lots of interesting shops throughout the Market Street area. You'll also find the AMC Theater, designed by Cesar Pelli and inspired by the Cathay Circle Cinema in LA, where Walt Disney premiered Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs in 1937. After dinner, head over to one of the many cafes and listen to jazz or grab a latte from Starbucks and relax in a rocking chair next to Lake Celebration. You may also want to visit Celebration Hotel. Their beautiful lobby bar is the perfect setting to enjoy a cocktail. This boutique hotel sits just on the edge of downtown and is decorated brilliantly with original art and interesting furniture. Not a bad idea for an overnight if you're looking for a romantic getaway.

There are many events throughout the year to be aware of, including The Taste of Celebration (November), The Celebration Spring Art Festival (April), and The Celebration 4th of July Festival. Visit www.celebrationfl.com to learn more about these and other great events. No detail was overlooked when this community was designed. The intention was to create a cozy, safe, hometown feel and this is exactly what you'll find. Even if this community is not somewhere you'd like to live, you'll still admire the amount of thought and planning that has gone into every aspect of Celebration. © NileGuide

1 Discovery Cove

OUR LOCAL EXPERT SAYS:

The park stays open late in the summer offering a twilight rate that includes dinner.

DESCRIPTION: In July of 2000, Discovery Cove opened its gates and began providing a unique theme park experience that is nothing short of extraordinary. With a maximum of 1,000 guests per day, the park has managed to create an intimate feel – more like you're visiting a swanky resort in the Caribbean than visiting a theme park in the middle of Orlando. The admission price, though hefty, includes all of your needs... towels, wet suits, lockers, snorkels, masks, sun tan lotion, souvenir photos and parking.

Meals and snacks are included as well (and not just hot dogs and hamburgers either). You'll start the day with a continental breakfast (pastries, muffins, fresh fruit, juices and coffee). You can have a hamburger for lunch if you'd like, but Discovery Cove also offers such items as grilled salmon and pasta primavera. Unlimited snacks such as chips, pretzels, nachos, ice cream and smoothies are available all day. You can also enjoy as much bottled water, soda, beer, and cappuccinos as you like.

If you've booked yourselves into the Dolphin Encounter, the friendly concierge will schedule your time in the Dolphin Lagoon when you arrive. During the 30-minute encounter, you and 5-7 other guests will wade into shallow water and get up close and personal with a very sociable and playful Atlantic Bottlenose Dolphin. Your trainer will guide the dolphin through a series of activities, allowing you to touch and instruct the dolphin. You'll also be able to experience a dorsal tow ride. For dolphin lovers, the extra admission price to include this encounter is definitely worth it.

When you arrive, you'll also want to check on the feeding times at Ray Lagoon so you can make sure to schedule that into your

by Kristen Manieri

day. You can interact with dozens of rays of all sizes, some up to four feet in diameter. It's an amazing experience to be amongst these gentle and graceful creatures. The Coral Reef is where you'll really get to test your snorkeling skills as you float along amongst the hundreds of brilliantly colored tropical fish and rays. Make sure you find the shark encounter. Don't worry... they're behind thick glass.

You'll want to make several trips down the warm Tropical River, drifting in the slight current, under waterfalls, and through an underwater cave. The river also takes you through the Aviary, where you can hop out of the water and interact with over 250 exotic birds, none of which are caged. Having a toucan land on your arm is an interesting experience. Discovery Cove's beach is a great feature as well. Along the huge expanse of white, sugary sand, you'll find hammocks, umbrellas, and cabanas for your use. When all the swimming and snorkeling leaves you exhausted, grab a beach lounge and have a nap.

To avoid disappointment, reservations are a must!

Work off your vacation treats with a .9 mile stroll around the lake - it's the perfect workout

DESCRIPTION: A couple of hours can easily and peacefully drift away while strolling around Lake Eola Park, taking in the floating fountain and watching the white and black swans peacefully paddling across the lake. Established in 1888, the park's 43 acres of land are continuously enhanced with vibrant flowers, perfectly manicured grounds, and charming gazebos. The walking path circling the lake is 0.9 miles in length, perfect for enjoying a healthy stroll or vigorous jog. Orlando Snapshot

Local Info

Think of Orlando and the picture of an iconic, cheerful mouse is sure to come to mind. Disney World not only sprawls across hundreds of acres of land in Lake Buena Vista, located in Orlando's southwest, its impact on Orlando tourism has been even more sweeping. If not for the explosion of Disney World, perhaps neighboring mega-parks like Universal Studios and SeaWorld may never have been born.

No doubt, most vacationers come to Orlando for the theme parks, and for good reason. There is more family fun packed into every square inch of Orlando than possibly anywhere else on the planet. From heart-dropping roller coasters to unforgettable live shows, Orlando's expansive parks are worth every penny of their admission price. Orlando offers an easy vacation for families- it's easy to get around, easy to find something to do, and easy to fly in and out of.

The standard week-long vacation is not even close to enough time to truly experience Orlando. A family could spend their entire stay within Disney World and still would only uncover a fraction of the delightful diversions available. Besides days spent inside Magic Kingdom, Epcot, Animal Kingdom, and the recently renamed Hollywood Studios (formerly MGM Studios), visitors can also book themed dinners with beloved characters, rent watercraft for traversing Disney's inner waterways, visit two Disney water parks, and take behind-the-scenes tours... and this still would only scratch Disney's surface. You wouldn't want to miss shopping and dining at Downtown Disney, as well as shows like Cirque du Soleil's La Nouba and the House of Blues's Gospel Brunch.

Those who manage to break from Disney's tender grip are quickly swallowed up at Universal Studios and Islands of Adventure. These two parks are packed with spectacular rides as well as a huge entertainment, shopping and dining complex known as CityWalk. And the fun doesn't stop there.

Yet, there is life beyond the theme parks. While it's difficult to compete with the color and gusto of Disney and its neighbors, there's actually a lot happening outside of the theme park zone. Downtown's walkable streets offer a robust dining and nightlife scene as well as some unique boutiques and a handful of theaters and museums.

When the locals grow weary of the theme parks, which they quickly do, they're more likely to be found strolling around Lake Eola Park that boasts the famed fountain and amphitheater. Here you'll find a few popular eateries hugging its shores, a place to rent swan boats, and an awesome Sunday farmer's market crowded with downtown hipsters enjoying its beer garden and live bands.

Winter Park, with its posh boutiques, million-dollar homes, and chic cafes and restaurants is also a superb spot for an afternoon of strolling, shopping and snacking. Even non-shoppers love Winter Park thanks to its museums, scenic boat tours, and well-manicured park spaces.

Wherever you spend your time during your Orlando visit, you'll likely describe Orlando locals as friendly and unpretentious. Orlando isn't a big city like New York or LA, and it knows it. Sure, Orlando people glam it up at nightclubs and can spend wads of cash like any big city slicker, but they're not a snobby bunch. They're used to sharing their space with visitors and can be amiable and obliging if you're ever in need of a local tip.

Besides theme parks, I-Drive, and a handful of quaint urban corridors, the beach is just over an hour away. Cocoa and New Smyrna are closest and both are great for families, couples, and singles. Drive an extra hour west and you'll be at the Gulf. In fact, Orlando is one of the best starting off points for any Florida-exploring vacation. The airport is a direct flight from every major city in North America and there is so much more to see within a two to three hour drive of this great city.

History

Until the 1970's, Central Florida was known mainly for agriculture. A hot spot for the cattle and citrus industry, the area consisted of hundreds of acres of farmland surrounding a tiny downtown.

All that changed in 1971 when Walt Disney World's Magic Kingdom was born. In 1973, SeaWorld came on the scene and in 1990, Universal flung open its gates. These three theme parks helped put Orlando on the map as the premier vacation destination for families. Nearly four decades later, Orlando now boasts over a hundred attractions, 5,300 restaurants and 112,000 hotel rooms.

Hotel Insights

There are more than 1120,000 hotel rooms and suites in Orlando just waiting to provide you with everything from a comfy bed to your own personal butler... depending on your price range. Hundreds of efficiency condos, villas, palatial resorts, boutique inns and high-rise hotels provide ample hospitality for every type of traveler on any sort of budget.

Walt Disney World

Disney offers a wide range of room options which makes it easy for all families to stay close to the number one reason most people visit Orlando in the first place... the Disney theme parks. You can camp at the Fort Wilderness Campground or really luxe it up at the ultra-opulent Disney's Coronado Springs Resort.

Of course, you don't have to stay at a Disney resort to get close to the parks. Located inside Disney but technically not a 'Disney' hotel, the Hilton in the Walt Disney World Resort is just a five-minute walk from Downtown Disney. Nearby, the Fairfield Inn Orlando Lake Buena Vista in the Marriott Village is an Official Walt Disney World Good Neighbor hotel.

Kissimmee

Kissimmee hotels tend to be much cheaper than Disney hotels and are conveniently located close to Disney World and a bevy of other tourist attractions and dinner shows. The Comfort Suites Kissimmee has two nice pools and Old Town, an easy attraction to hit on a relaxing day, is right next door.

International Drive

I-Drive caters to budget-minded families as well as budget-busting executives attending conferences at the nearby Orange County Convention Center. Those with money to burn will love the JW Marriott Orlando Grande Lakes and the Rosen Centre Hotel. Rather spend your cash at the theme parks? Check out Embassy Suites Orlando

Downtown

Downtown you'll find a handful of quaint urban inns such as the EO Inn and The Veranda Bed and Breakfast. Of course, there are also a couple of chain hotels such as Marriott Orlando Downtown. The downtown favorite is definitely the Grand Bohemian, an ultra-chic Kessler property, that is the hotel of choice for visiting NBA players hoping to successfully challenge the Orlando Magic.

Restaurants Insights

Orlando is delicious! At first glance, Orlando might appear to be a fairly homogeneous foodie town... but don't let its fast food facade fool you. Beyond its golden arches and cheap and cheerful chain restaurants, there lies a fair amount of edible sophistication found in unique and independent eateries all over the Orlando area. From hot dog stands with two dozen different tube steaks to chic downtown diners with artful bites, Orlando's restaurant landscape truly has something for every picky palate.

Walt Disney World

The sprawling Walt Disney World complex is an eating extravaganza owing to the dozens of eateries it's tucked into hotels, theme parks, and entertainment districts throughout the 7,100 acres it occupies in Lake Buena Vista. Memorable meals that bring kiddies face to face with their favorite characters are plentiful (Cinderella's Royal Table) as are more intimate 'adult' spots like Todd English's Blue Zoo and Victoria and Albert's.

There are several delectable restaurants housed inside some of Disney's favorite hotels such as Jiko at the Animal Kingdom Lodge and California Grill inside the Contemporary Resort. You'll definitely want to make a reservation if you plan to eat at any of the sit-down restaurants inside any of the four theme parks. Rainforest Café, for example, is a fabulous choice for dinner when visiting Animal Kingdom as it'll be the ideal pit stop as you depart the park after a long day of animal encounters. Coral Reef inside Epcot's Living Seas Pavilion is also a trendy pick.

Disney's Boardwalk and Downtown Disney, two entertainment districts located inside the complex but outside the theme parks, also offer a handful of great eateries each. Flying Fish Café on the Boardwalk and House of Blues at Downtown Disney are definitely crowd favorites. Whatever you choose – fancy or unfussy – Disney dining options are seemingly endless.

Universal Studios

You're not likely to find much other than quick eats inside Universal Studios or Islands of Adventure... but never fear... that's why CityWalk was created. This 30 acre mega-plex of bars, boutiques, and restaurants caters to every appetite day or night. Restaurants here all sport groovy themes like NBA City for sports fans, Hard Rock Cafe and Bob Marley: A Tribute to Freedom for music fans, and Bubba Gump Shrimp Co. for movie fans. Make sure to sample the Volcano Nachos at Jimmy Buffet's Margaritaville and the Bloody Mary wings at Pat O'Brien's.

Downtown Orlando

It's worth the trek away from the tourist areas to visit Downtown Orlando, even if you only plan on grabbing a quick bite. Downtown Orlando is almost entirely chain restaurant-free which means the two dozen+ restaurants that dot the landscape around Lake Eola Park are all unique and exciting each in their own right. In Thornton Park, on the east side of Lake Eola, you'll find award-winning favorites like Hue and Dexter's.

On the opposite side of the park, Wall Street Plaza houses a handful of good spots (The Globe's fusion menu is delish) best enjoyed before this party-zone comes to life each night around 10pm. Just beyond Wall Street you'll find Church Street Station, home to popular haunts like Ceviche and the Dessert Lady. All located within an easy five or ten minute walk from each other, park your car anywhere around Lake Eola Park and ask a local to point you to their favorite downtown eatery... it won't disappoint.

Winter Park

North Orlando has a lot of fantastic dining destinations but most notable is Park Avenue in Winter Park. This posh, brick-lined street is where you'll find chic eateries that pride themselves on catering to a well-heeled crowd. Amidst the more luxe locations like Luma on Park and 310 Park South, you'll also find a handful of more humble haunts such as Briar Patch and Bosphorous Turkish Cuisine. Much like downtown, you just need to park the car and ask a local where to eat- you can't go wrong on Park Avenue.

Nightlife Insights

If you're looking for amusement in Orlando, the fun doesn't stop when the sun goes down. From sipping martinis at swanky nightclubs, to listening to live bands at world-class venues, to spectacular fireworks shows, Orlando offers non-stop activity for those visitors still raring to go in the evening.

Bars and Nightclubs

There are four areas in Orlando that house a great selection of bars and nightclubs making it ideal to park your car at one and enjoy an assortment of various watering holes. Starting from the north, there are a couple dozen hot spots located in downtown Orlando that locals love. Upscale chill-out haunts include Ceviche (at Church Street Station) and Ember.

Clubby types will love places like Tabu and the bars of Wall Street Plaza will surely please. And for casual, beer-on-a-patio type of bars, both 310 Lakeside and Eola Wine Company offer an easy vibe. There are about 7,000 parking spots on streets and in garages all charging around $10-$15. Look for valet services too which charge around $20. There is absolutely no overnight parking in downtown Orlando so make sure someone can be the DD.

Your next two stops are International Drive where you'll find favorites like Howl at the Moon, and Universal's CityWalk for dance clubs like Red Coconut Lounge and karaoke bars like Rising Star. Parking rates vary on I-Drive and will be about $6 at CityWalk (evening rate). Lastly, you've got Downtown Disney which is home to House of Blues, and the bars of Pleasure Island. Parking at Downtown Disney is free.

Live Music

On any night of the week, you can listen to big-name bands rock out in huge venues like Hard Rock Live or acoustic guitar players gently strumming away on patios at places like 310 Park South. Martini bars, such as the Bosendorfer Lounge usually have live acts seven nights a week.

Amusement Parks

Unquestionably, one of the best places to be at night is still inside the theme parks which never cease to amaze visitors with spectacular fireworks shows seven nights a week. Favorites include the IllumiNations: Reflections of Earth show at Epcot, Fantasmic at Hollywood Studios, and the Wishes Nighttime Spectacular at Magic Kingdom.

Performing Arts

Beyond spectacular shows such as Cirque du Soleil- La Nouba and The Blue Man Group, Orlando also offers fabulous movie theaters (read all about them here), live comedy at Sak Comedy Lab, live theater at places like the Theater Downtown, and an ever-changing selection of Broadway, ballet, and instrumental performances at the Bob Carr Center for Performing Arts.

Things to Do Insights

There is so much to do in Orlando. In fact, visitors are challenged less by finding things to do and more by narrowing down the hundreds of choices to a handful of activities manageable in a week or two. On initial visits, nearly every vacationer opts for at least a few days at Walt Disney World. Its magical theme parks and entertainment districts like Downtown Disney never cease to amaze. Nearby Universal Studios and SeaWorld are pretty darn awesome too.

Beyond the theme parks and tourist attractions on I-Drive, Orlando has become an epicenter of amusement thanks to family-friendly hotspots like the Orlando Science Center and Kissimmee's Old Town. Orlando's beauty is exemplified at Harry P. Leu Gardens and downtown's Lake Eola Park. Its culture oozes through at the Orlando Museum of Art and Albion Polasek Museum Sculpture Garden and. Its sense of adventure is unmistakable thanks to Orange Blossom Balloons and Boggy Creek Airboat & Swamp Buggy Rides.

Everything you could ever hope to do is within a 90-minute drive of this all-inclusive city. Spend the day in the sand at Cocoa Beach, bargain hunt at the outlet malls, lounge at your resort pool, golf, water-ski, or swim with a dolphin. It's simply impossible to run out of things to do in Orlando.
